

Tourism Industry New Zealand Trust

Grants

The Tourism Industry New Zealand Trust (TINZT) was established in 2007 for charitable purposes:

- the education of people involved in the New Zealand tourism industry and the education of all persons in New Zealand on matters relating to the tourism industry in New Zealand
- the fostering and promotion of a tourism industry in New Zealand based on the sustainable use and preservation of New Zealand's natural assets.

The Trust has funds available for distribution to associations, companies or individuals for projects or ideas that will further the aims and criteria of the Trust.

If you have a great idea or project that you would like to see progressed, email the Trust now.

An application form for grants from the New Zealand Tourism Industry Trust is attached.
